Summary

oct 2025-abr 2025
I started my own home massage business while I was studying, combining my passion for wellness and health with my desire to offer personalized services to my clients. Over time, I have grown and expanded my skills. My focus is on providing exceptional service tailored to the individual needs of each client, ensuring their comfort and satisfaction. Through attention to detail and the creation of a relaxing environment, I have built a loyal and satisfied client base, which has contributed to the steady growth of my business.
