I am an active and enthusiastic person, with a great passion for traveling and learning about new cultures. I consider myself independent and always look for new opportunities to grow both personally and professionally. I don't stop at anything; On the contrary, I look for new challenges and experiences. I love interacting with new people, learning from them and sharing my knowledge. I have a positive and friendly attitude, always willing to contribute in a collaborative work environment. My goal is to live and work abroad.
