About me:

A nomadic sales specialist.

From a very young age, I've led a nomadic lifestyle; I've moved more than 12 times, starting this journey before I was even a year old. I've lived in various cities and countries, which has not only allowed me to adapt quickly to new environments but also to understand cultural diversity and the needs of different groups of people.

Alongside my nomadic life, I have over 18 years of experience in sales across various sectors. I have worked with different types of products and services, giving me exceptional versatility and communication skills. I've learned the importance of listening to my clients, understanding their needs, and offering solutions that truly make an impact.

My sales experience, combined with my life journey, has taught me the value of building strong and trustworthy relationships. I am confident that I can bring a unique perspective and a personalized approach that will resonate with your clients.

Thank you for your attention.

Hope to hear from you soon...
